School Bond Decision Slated

Religious Week Lecturer Named

Dr. D. Elton Trueblood, nationally known minister of the Friends church, author of more than two dozen books, and currently president of Yokefellow Associates, will deliver the annual Willson Lecture Series at West Texas State University April 16-19.

The series is scheduled daily at 10 a.m. in the Fine Arts Building auditorium, and is sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Willson of Floydada. The

Sunrise Service Sunday

"Easter Sunrise Services" will be held in Pioneer Amphitheatre in Palo Duro Canyon at 5:45 a.m. Easter Sunday.

Rev. Baldwin J. Stribling, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Canyon, will give the sunrise address.

Sponsored by the inter-denominational Canyon Christian Youth Council, the program will include a sound and light production of the "death and resurrection of Jesus Christ" and a recording of the "Hallelujah Chorus" by the London Philharmonic. The sound-light show will be narrated by Ric Wilson.

The Canyon High School Madrigal Singers will present special music.

Darlene Williams, CCYC president, says that "no admission will be charged for entry to the park at the early morning service--however persons planning to remain in the park after the service will be charged the regular gate entrance fee."

Bandsmen Will Sell Newspapers

Band students of Canyon High School will conduct a subscription drive in cooperation with The Canyon News April 18.

Sponsored by the Canyon Band Parents Association, the drive will be conducted door-to-door beginning at 6 p.m. Students will sell both new and renewal subscriptions to the Canyon News at regular rates of $5 per year and will receive commissions on each sale.

Funds from the drive will be used to support an upcoming band trip to the Buccaneer Band Festival in Corpus Christi in early May. The CHS band will also perform at the HemisFair in San Antonio on May 2 enroute to Corpus Christi.

The subscription drive will be concluded with refreshments and a social sponsored by the Band Parents.

Willsons have sponsored the WTSU series, and similar lectures in several Texas colleges, for more than 20 years.

General theme for Dr. Trueblood's series will be "Religion and the Educated Man." His opening address April 16 will be "The Function of Reason," and subsequent talks will be "The Nature of Trust," "The Difference Men Can Make," and "How to Be a Christian Today."

Classes are not dismissed for the series, and the organized activities of the former Religious Emphasis Week, conducted by various church centers adjacent to the campus, will not be coordinated as in the past. However, individual church center programs may be conducted according to discretion of the centers.

Among some of the best known works of Dr. Trueblood are (See RELIGIOUS Page 9)

None Appear At Hearing

No one appeared at a City Commission public hearing here Friday concerning rezoning a strip of land in Hunsley Hills.

Commissioners, who met briefly to hear any discussion of the rezoning proposed by Tom Rose, owner of the Hunsley Hills golf club, were told the matter was recommended by the Zoning Commission that has already sanctioned the action.

Rose earlier told city commissioners he planned to construct a club house near the golf club offices and wanted the strip of property changed from dwelling to retail classification.

Final stage in the request will probably come April 15 when the city fathers conduct their regular bi-monthly business session.

Fees Scheduled For Lake Entry

Charges for admission to the Buffalo Lake National Wildlife Refuge will be made after May 10, 1968, according to Gordon Hansen, manager.

Hansen, speaking before a meeting of the Golden Spread Hunting and Fishing Club in Amarillo Monday, said after May 10, a charge of $1 per car for each day at the lake will be made, or 50 cents per person for those arriving at the refuge on foot or by bicycle. The charge is for those who only plan to visit the lake a few times each year, he added.

For those who will be visiting this and other national wildlife refuges, a Golden Eagle

March Honors King

Some 200 persons Sunday participated in a memorial service for Dr. Martin Luther King, slain Negro civil rights leader.

The memorial service was held on the lawn of the Episcopal Student Center after a march from the Presbyterian Church some 20 blocks away in downtown Canyon.

Only about 150 persons were involved in the march. The march, confined to sidewalks, got underway with only about 20 marchers. Others joined in along the route which was down Fourth Avenue past West Texas State University.

Marching at the head of the column was Rev. Baldwin Stribling, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, who said he received a bombing threat a scant hour before the procession began.

The group was joined at the Episcopal Student Center by Rev. Charles Pederson, Episcopal minister; and Father George Sallaway, pastor of St. Ann's Catholic Church.

Dr. Charles Fisher, professor of sociology at West Texas State and himself an ordained Methodist minister, delivered a eulogy to Dr. King. He was a fellow student of the slain civil rights leader at Boston College.

"Dr. King did not have violence in his vocabulary," Dr. Fisher declared. "He had resistance in his vocabulary. He believed that he who takes to the sword will perish by it and that the nation could destroy itself in violence."

Dr. Fisher told of Dr. King's role in the bus boycott in Montgomery, Ala., in 1955 and declared that the boycott was successful.

Dr. Fisher said many people may think the assassination of Dr. King was a victory for violence but declared that the symbol of the Cross has endured (See MARCH Page 9)

Incumbents Re-Elected To Board

All three incumbents were returned to the school board Saturday in light balloting in the school district.

Jerry LaGrone led the field of six candidates with 376 votes. Wesley Cox was second with 345 votes and Joe Gill was third with 334.

John Albers polled 238 votes and Dick Flenniken 174. Glenn Dorris received 160 votes. Flenniken received 157 votes at Canyon and 17 at Gene Howe Elementary School. LaGrone received 362 at Canyon and 14 at Gene Howe.

Albers polled 228 at Canyon and 10 at Gene Howe. Cox received 334 at Canyon and 11 at Gene Howe. Dorris received 154 at Canyon and 6 at Gene Howe and Gill received 326 at Canyon and 8 at Gene Howe.

The election was canvassed and the board reorganized Monday night in a special meeting of the board.

LaGrone was named president of the board, an office he held on a previous occasion. J. O. Parker was named vice president; Bill Davis, secretary; and Harold Irwin, associate secretary.

G. Hansen Resigns Post

Gordon Hansen, manager of the Buffalo Lake National Wildlife Refuge since November 1966, has resigned.

In announcing his resignation, which will become effective May 19, Hansen said he would be transferred to the manager's position at the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge.

The Aransas refuge, he said, is noted for its 47 whooping cranes. The refuge is divided into the 50,000-acre Aransas and the Cavasgo region that covers about 7,500 acres.

Dr. Golden Advises Against Remodeling

Canyon School Board will meet with architects and financial advisers next Tuesday night to consider the possibility of a bond issue for construction of a new junior high school building.

Decision to act came Monday night following a report by Dr. Floyd Golden, Amarillo planning and survey consultant, who was hired by the board to survey the existing building and to give advice on a course of action.

Dr. Golden was emphatic in his advice against remodeling the present structure.

Dr. Golden said remodeling of the present building would cost about $786,508 and still would leave the school system with an inadequate junior high school building.

He estimated that the cost of constructing a new building with 17,709 additional square feet of space would come to $1,275,796. He said such a building would accommodate 1,000 to 1,100 students.

Board members contemplate the air conditioning of Rex

Reeves Elementary School at a cost of about $85,000. This would bring a bond issue to about $1,360,796. If Rex Reeves is air conditioned and a new temperature controlled junior high school is built, all Canyon schools then would be air conditioned.

Dr. Golden pointed out the advantages of air conditioning. He said students learn about 20 percent faster in such buildings and that teachers do a better job of teaching.

"You don't have the disciplinary problems you have in a building that is not temperature controlled," he declared.

He noted that in such a building (See GOLDEN Page 9)

To Hide 6,000 Eggs Sunday

Six thousand Easter eggs will be hidden at Conner Park Sunday for a community egg hunt sponsored by the Canyon Jaycees.

The hunt will begin at 1 p.m. with divisions for ages 1-6 years and 7-12 years. All local youngsters may participate in the egg hunt.

Prizes will be awarded in each division according to Terry Clark, Jaycee chairman.

Youngsters in Happy will have a community egg hunt at 3 p.m. Sunday. Sponsored by Happy Jaycees, the hunt will have two divisions and prizes will be awarded. Eggs totalling 1,500 have been hid at Stephenson Park for the hunt.

City Attorney Quits Post

The resignation of Elton Cox as attorney for the City of Canyon was accepted by commissioners last week.

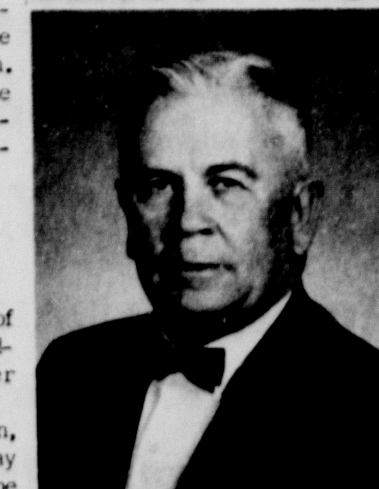

Cox, who has been city attorney for the past year, resigned without giving a reason. The resignation was to become effective immediately.

The former city attorney, who was not at the meeting of commissioners last week, said later his reasons for resigning were "privileged."

Mayor Paul Lindsey, who accepted the resignation "with regrets", discussed the possibility of employing a city attorney who was familiar with the sale of bonds. Someone from outside Canyon might be considered, he added.

Voters here last week passed three bond propositions totalling $440,000, the sale of which will be advertised May 6. Funds from the bond sales will be used for sewer, street and drainage and dump ground improvements.

Lee Foster Dies, Rites Conducted

LEE FOSTER
Robert Lee Foster, 68, died Sunday at Neblett Memorial Hospital in Canyon.

Mr. Foster formerly served the Canyon Independent School District as tax assessor-collector until his retirement in September 1966. He had served as tax assessor-collector since 1948.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Presbyterian Church of Canyon Tuesday by the Rev. Baldwin J. Stribling, pastor, with the Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, assisting.

Interment was at Dreamland Cemetery under the direction of LaGrone Funeral Home.

Mr. Foster was born in Canyon Oct. 14, 1899 and had spent his life in Randall County. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Canyon and the Canyon City Masonic Lodge No. 730. He served on the board of elders in the church on three different occasions.

At the time Mr. Foster became a Shriner in 1921, he was the youngest Shriner in the State of Texas and later a charter member of the Khiva Temple in Amarillo. He worked at the First State Bank of Canyon from 1921 until 1933 when the bank was consolidated with the First (See FOSTER Page 9)

PANHANDLE SCIENCE FAIR awards won by Canyon Junior High School students at Amarillo included this exhibit by Jamie Martin, right, which won a first place in the math division and a NASA Award from the National Aeronautics Space Administration. Other Junior

Students Out For Holidays

Easter vacation for students of Canyon Independent School District begins today and will continue through Monday.

Classes will resume Tuesday morning.

Students at West Texas State University are also on vacation and will resume regular classes on April 16, Tuesday.

The regular week end hours will be observed for Easter by employees of Randall County Courthouse, the U.S. Post Office here and the City Hall.

CANYON RIM

Dr. Charles Fisher, professor of sociology at West Texas State University who says he is a Methodist minister, gave the eulogy for Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunday at a gathering on the lawn of the Episcopal Student Center.

Dr. Fisher made some startling statements which I decided to check out by telephone this week.

Dr. Fisher made the flat statement that there were no bus routes through the Watts district, scene of violent racial disturbances in 1965. Watts is a Negro section of Los Angeles.

I called the Southern California Rapid Transit District in Los Angeles and talked to C. J. Holzer, a traffic engineer with the firm.

He said Watts has had bus service for more than a score of years at least.

"I've been with the company for 25 years and Watts has had service all that time," said the transportation company official.

He said the area has bus service from 5 o'clock in the morning until midnight.

The McCone Commission (New York Times, May 4, 1966) found bus service in the Watts area to be "unsatisfactory" and the Department of Housing and Urban Development announced the designation of funds to make subsidized, cheap transportation available.

The private bus line which has been there for decades now must operate in competition with a federally subsidized line, according to Holzer.

Dr. Fisher told his audience that mass media did not give coverage to the Montgomery, Ala., bus boycott led by Martin Luther King, Jr., in 1955.

Dr. King in his book "Stride Toward Freedom", although attributing it to ulterior motives, conceded that The Montgomery Advertiser gave front page coverage to the initial plan to boycott Montgomery buses. He even attributed part of the success of the boycott to this news coverage.

I talked to Harold Martin, co-publisher of The Advertiser, Tuesday morning. Martin said the front page of The Advertiser was devoted to the boycott "for days."

Dr. Fisher later charged that the Selma newspaper gave little or inadequate coverage to the Selma march of 1965.

I talked to Publisher R. L. Falkenberg of The Selma Times-Journal Tuesday and learned that The Selma Times-Journal received the US Steel Award in 1965 for outstanding service in the field of journalism through coverage of civil rights.

Falkenberg branded as an out and out untruth any statement that his newspaper stood short in its coverage of civil rights in the Selma area.

I think it ironic indeed that the Rev. Dr. Fisher would speak of love and brotherhood in the same speech in which he made these statements.

Regardless of intent, they were couched in such terms and came at such a time of emotional stress as to cause further hatred and divisiveness. It behooves us all in this time of national peril to measure our words carefully with the yardstick of truth.

A week ago tonight Martin Luther King, Jr., was shot down by the hand of a senseless assassin.

His death was as predictable as it was tragic. I do not hold Martin Luther King, Jr., to have been as bad a man as do his detractors. I do not hold him to have been as good a man as those who would deify him.

In his cry for justice I applauded him. Conscientiously I must decry his flaunting of the law, which he did on numerous occasions.

At the time of his assassination he was in Memphis to lead a march which had been forbidden by federal court injunction. This is anarchy and anarchy begets violence.

He was a paradoxical man. Numerous times he had used the courts to gain his ends and here we see him ready to defy a federal court.

He was paradoxical in many other ways too. Though proclaimed by himself and his followers to be an apostle of non-violence, he visited and conferred with such violent men as Ben Bella of Algeria. He also advocated seating of Red China, rapist of Tibet, in the United Nations.

He was paradoxical in his view of this nation's position in the world.

He urged a policy of non-intervention in Viet Nam declaring that the people of Viet Nam should be allowed "self determination." If his policy were followed that country would quickly be swallowed up by North Viet Nam communists.

Yet in spite of his position of non-intervention in Viet Nam, he vehemently advocated that this country take economic sanctions against Rhodesia and the Union of South Africa, with whose internal policies he disagreed.

I have spent hours in the past week reading the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and I find myself thinking of this life, snuffed out at 39, as an unfinished book.

Even his detractors must admit that Martin Luther King, Jr., was a man dedicated to his cause. He was stabbed, jailed, spat upon and finally murdered. One thing undeniable is his personal courage.

I hope non-violence will become the foundation stone of all groups who strive to better themselves in this republic based on laws. It is absolutely necessary that we all recognize that flaunting of the law has no place in America whether it be done by a white racist or a black civil rights leader.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

April 5, 1968

Dear Editor:

A Negro student recently related to me that he is called a 'damn Nigger' by so-called 'mature' adults in this community of ours. He, his wife, and his baby apparently cannot live peacefully in our neighborhoods just because they happened to be born with a dark skin. What bothers me even more, these so-called 'mature' adults (fortunately they are only few in numbers in our community) probably go to Church every Sunday and pretend to be Christians. God help America if this hypocrisy persists much longer. All the money and effort the Federal Government and our community pour out for the rights of our minority groups will mean very little unless every single American examines his conscience and re-dedicates himself to the principles of the 'Fatherhood of God' and the 'Brotherhood of Man'. I call on the city and county governments to declare Canyon a free city where every American - may his skin be black, brown, or what not - may live in peace and harmony. If America does not adhere to these principles, we are going to have a lot of 'hot summers, falls, winters, and springs'.

Sincerely yours,
Hubert W. Oppe

P.S. I just heard over the radio that Martin Luther King, Jr. was assassinated. Oh God, please help America to find its soul.

Mr. Troy Martin

Editor,

Canyon News

Canyon, Texas

Dear Troy:

With reference to your editorial comment April 4, suggesting the salary of the Randall County Judge be raised immediately, may I question the wisdom and purpose of such action at this time? And further observe:

Whether the salary of the County Judge, as it now stands, is too little or too much is of no concern of the moment.

Surely it may be assumed that both candidates for that office were aware of, and satisfied with the amount the office pays when they announced their candidacy; for no person with a mature mind would ask for--even spend good money to get--a particular job if he were not willing to accept the salary it paid.

It appears to me it would be the height of folly to raise the salary of any public official after the deadline for filing has passed, or during his elected term, since it would lay an extra burden of expense on the tax payers of the county and gain for them absolutely nothing in return for their money. Who knows who might have filed for the office of County Judge had the salary been raised before the date for filing passed? Instead of, as you suggest, after.

No, the people of Randall County, at this time, have but the choice of one of two candidates for their judge, and no amount of salary increase would enhance their chance, one iota, of getting a better man.

To raise the Judges salary now would not be fair to the people, to lower it would not be fair to the candidate.

Respectfully
C. N. Cosby

Honors For Tracksters

Several honors have been awarded to seventh through ninth grade track runners at recent tournaments, according to Gene Andrews, Canyon Junior High School coach.

In a meet at Plainview, the eighth grade finished with a third and the ninth graders managed a second placing. At Clovis, the eighth graders won fourth and took a second place standing in a tournament here.

The ninth graders won a second here and another second place in Hereford.

The ninth graders will compete in Amarillo April 20 at an all-day meet slated in Dick Bivins Stadium and on the same day the seventh and eighth graders will compete in a tournament at the CHS track.

French Alliance Planned At WTSU

BY WAYNE BOARD

A French alliance for students and adults in the local area may be formed through the modern languages department at West Texas State University and the University of Texas French Department.

Dr. Michel Dassonville, head of the UT French Department, was in Canyon for lectures and talks with WTSU officials concerning the possibility of forming an "Alliance Francaise" that would, he said, help culturally link France and the United States.

Noting there were alliances in San Antonio, Austin, Fort Worth, Houston and El Paso, Dr. Dassonville pointed out that the organization was international in scope.

He said the Alliance Francaise is an organization for all persons interested in French culture and while subsidized by the French government, has no political ties. The alliance is administered through the University of France in Paris.

Members in the alliance, he pointed out, join by purchasing a one year "subscription" for a small fee. Each locally formulated organization is autonomous and can develop its own character and objectives. The alliance acts as a distributor of French books, plays and motion pictures which are purchased for a small fee.

As an example of the workings of the organization, Dr. Dassonville said the alliance in Austin has distributed 12 French language motion pictures recently and has sponsored masked balls with members coming as characters from French novels.

Mrs. Monica Heiman, professor of French at WTSU who will handle plans for the local organization, and Mrs. Margaret Harper, former president of the Panhandle Heritage Foundation and wife of the head of the modern languages department at WTSU, took Dr. Dassonville on a tour of the Pioneer Amphitheatre in Palo Duro Canyon State Park last week.

"This is the first time I have seen a canyon—a real canyon—since I came here," Dr. Dassonville said.

Dr. Dassonville, a native of Lille, France, seemed impressed with the vast reaches of the largest state park in Texas and also with the colors of the rocks near the amphitheatre. After touring an old dugout in the canyons—the first Dr. Dassonville had ever seen—the French professor from UT decided modern civilization was probably better than pioneer life.

Dr. Dassonville, standing at the top row of seats in the amphitheatre, was amazed to learn he could hear a penny being dropped on the stage below.

"The acoustics," he declared, "are marvelous here. I've never heard anything like it before."

Taking a tour of the canyons on the Sad Monkey Railroad, Dr. Dassonville was able to see some of the more primitive areas of the region.

"It is magnificent country," he said. "I want to come back later to see more of it. The colors are so beautiful and the air so fresh."

Dr. Dassonville, who is preparing a multi-volume work on the French 16th century poet, Pierre de Ronsard, but has not been to his native land since 1960, said he planned to return here later this year for a further tour of the canyon.

Taking one backward look at the state park, Dr. Dassonville declared: "I'll be back—I'll certainly be back."

FHA Chapter Observes Week

National Future Homemakers of America Week was observed in Canyon last week.

FHA members from Canyon Junior High School opened the week with a church visit to the First Methodist Church Sunday. Theme for the observance this year was "Focus on Citizenship".

Marilyn Read. Wednesday was teacher appreciation day during which a "pretty baby contest" was conducted. Winners of the baby contest were Mrs. Susan Watkins and Bob Naylor.

Twirl Day was observed on Thursday. Friday the FHA chapter had an ice cream party and Saturday a bake sale was conducted to raise funds.

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it—and so do its readers.

Local Men At Opening

Boone McClure, director of the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum, and Raymond Raillard, executive vice president of the "TEXAS"-sponsoring Panhandle Heritage Foundation, were in San Antonio last week attending a pre-opening session of HemisFair '68.

Raillard said the Texas Pavilion at HemisFair '68 had information and color slides available of "TEXAS" and Palo Duro Canyon State Park. Slides of the canyons were shown on the dome of the Texas Pavilion, Raillard explained.

The Texas building, which is located on the southeast corner of the exposition site, is 50 feet high and measures 365 feet by 240 feet with a gross floor area of more than 145,000 feet.

Police Officer School Set At West Texas

BY WAYNE BOARD

A four-week certification school for area law enforcement officers will begin here in late June at West Texas State University, it was announced last week.

The certification program, to be taught by instructors from the engineering extension service of Texas A&M University, is part of a voluntary plan recently recommended by the Commission on Law Enforcement Standards and Procedures.

About 20 peace officers from throughout the Panhandle area met here last week to okay the program that will be taught for the four weeks at a cost of $60 per man.

While the certification policy recommended by the commission is voluntary at this time, officers said they felt the program would be mandatory later.

Under the program described by Ira Scott, representative of the A&M extension service, each of the officers would receive 140 hours of classroom and field training in four stages.

The basic stage, Scott said, would involve a study of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedures, laws of arrest, searches with and without warrants and answering calls.

The second stage will be a study of the basic concepts of criminal law and statutes of the State of Texas.

Officers in the third stage of study will learn criminal investigation which Scott described as a "good, well rounded out approach".

He said the instructors would stage field exercises including the investigation of mock murders, burglaries and other felony crimes.

"This," Scott said, "will give the officers an opportunity to put into practice what has been learned in class. Some of the training will be at night because, unfortunately, all crimes do not occur during the day."

The fourth week will include a thorough study of traffic laws and accident investigation. The final stage, he explained, will involve primarily field work.

Also to be included in the final week of study will be what Scott described as "scientific aids in dealing with disturbances".

"This is simply handling mobs," he declared. "This is a timely subject—we don't like to think about it, but it is here. I feel officers need this kind of training to handle mobs."

Officers attending the session here last week said they might send one or two of their men to the training program here in June and additional personnel to another certification school at Amarillo Junior College in September.

"We're not trying to go into competition with anyone," Scott said of the WTSU and AJC schools. "We need training everywhere."

Scott said the extension service did not give instruction in first aid or fire arms but "this is offered by a number of other agencies".

A&M, he explained, also has courses for water and sewer employees, industrial development, heavy equipment operation and plumbing.

Aiding the two A&M instructors will be representatives from the Texas Department of Public Safety and the Texas Liquor Control Board.

"We steer clear of abstract theory," Scott said of the certification program.

Bobby Hudson, head of the WTSU Security Department, said the university would furnish an air-conditioned classroom for the instruction and dormitory and cafeteria facilities, if necessary.

Present for the meeting last week were law enforcement officers from Canyon, Amarillo, Plainview, Tulia, Borger, and Hereford.

"Everyone has inexperienced men in the field," said Canyon Police Chief L.D. Caldwell, pointing to the need for officer training.

LAW ENFORCEMENT certification courses will be offered for area peace officers at West Texas State University this summer. Discussing the program is Ira Scott, left, head of the certification program at Texas A&M University, and Bobby Hudson, WTSU Security Department chief.

New 'Phono-Shuffle' Game Invented By Dr. Zell SoRelle

A new game, combining recreation and education, is about to make its debut in the Student Union Building at West Texas State University.

The game is called international phono-shuffle. It is based on the international phonetic alphabet.

Players may find that it has some of the elements of Chess, checkers, scrabble and a crossword puzzle, but Dr. Zell SoRelle, associate professor of speech, who originated and patented the game, declined to make any comparison between it and other games.

But, said Dr. SoRelle, players of the new game can learn to speak with more confidence, understand discrepancies between sound and spelling, pronounce any word in the world, build a powerhouse vocabulary, hear the beauties of the spoken word, and learn the basic sounds of most languages of the world.

As a starter here, the 17 students in Dr. SoRelle's class, phonetics 352, have challenged any and all former students in that class to a tournament.

Frank Castleberry, director of the SUB, said arrangements were being made to stage the event in some section of the SUB after the Easter holidays.

The International Phonetic Alphabet, established in 1886, consists of one sound per symbol and one symbol per sound. The sounds of the English version of the game are represented phonographically on 130 playing squares. The idea of the game is to build words by sounds in crossword fashion on the playing board.

One, two, three, or four players can work on one board. Castleberry said ample space would be provided for kibitzers if the class' challenge is accepted. Some of the rules are as elementary as those for a crossword puzzle.

Dr. SoRelle said processes of conversion give the game a versatility which may accomplish a wide range of objectives. For instance, she said, an elementary teacher can learn to understand some of the phonetic difficulties which underlie the problems of young pupils, or it can be helpful to anyone planning to be a missionary and to translate the Bible into some foreign tongue.

NEW! For clean Sorghum... spray weeds when you see them!
with BANVEL

VELSICOL announces Banvel herbicide for control of all hard-to-kill weeds of major importance in grain sorghum. This includes carelessweed (pigweed), sunflower, lambs-quarter, purslane, morning glory and other annual broadleaf weeds. Banvel herbicide is applied post-emergence, so there are no wasted sprays in years when rain is scarce and weeds are not a problem. With Banvel you see your weed problem and then spray—all in plenty of time to give young sorghum plants plenty of opportunity to grow.

Banvel is sprayed onto weed leaves and translocates to the roots... for new, total control of weeds. Just apply Banvel between the 10th and 25th day after emergence of grain sorghum (approximately 4 to 12 inches tall).

Banvel is not dependent on soil moisture for its effectiveness, so its results are dependable. And it's a liquid that won't clog your sprayers; nor does Banvel need constant agitation.

Banvel increases yields. It's excellent for use on grain sorghum, wheat, barley, oats and field corn. Order Banvel herbicide to get full potential from your valuable, high-yielding sorghum seed.

COOK OF THE WEEK Shares Recipe Favorites

Homemaker of the week, Mrs. Willis Harrison, shares recipes for Strawberry Glaze Pie, Cheese Rolls and Beef Stroganoff with our readers this week.

Mrs. Harrison, the former Mary Ann Brown, was raised at Allison, about 60 miles east of Pampa. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, presently of Canyon. She has two sister, Mrs. Donna Helms of Spearman and Mrs. Jim Greenwood of Canyon.

A graduate of Allison High School, Mrs. Harrison received a bachelor's degree in home economics from West Texas State University in 1961.

Her husband, Willis, is also a native of Allison. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harrison, still live there. He has a brother, Darrell of Amarillo; and two sisters, Mrs. Clifton Boydston of Allison and Mrs. J. D. Wallace of Sweetwater, Oklahoma.

He graduated from Allison High School, received the bachelor's degree in biology from West Texas State University in 1961 and attended dental school at the University of Texas in Houston completing his degree there in 1965. He served with the United States Army for two years from the fall of 1965 until September 1967, during which time he spent ten months in Vietnam.

While at Houston, Mrs. Harrison was employed as an assistant home demonstration agent for Harris County. She spent four years working with 4-H activities there.

The couple's children include

Monte Ray, 7, who is a second grade student at Rex Reeves Elementary School; Julie Ann, 4; and Wade, 16 months. Wade (the youngest) was born while his father was in Vietnam.

The Harrisons moved to Canyon last fall. He purchased the dental practice here from Dr. Robert E. Wood. Dr. Harrison's office receptionist and assistant for the past several months has been his wife, Mary Ann.

Members of the First Methodist Church, Mrs. Harrison is active in the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the church. She has recently joined the Canyon Study Club and is a member of the Canyon chapter of the American Association of University Women.

Dr. Harrison is a member of the Canyon Lions Club.

Her favorite recipes are:

STRAWBERRY GLAZE PIE

- 1/2 cup sugar
- 3 Tbsp. cornstarch
- 3 Tbsp. flour
- 1/2 tsp. salt

(Glaze)

For cream filling: combine sugar, cornstarch, flour, and salt. Gradually stir in milk. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly.

Lower heat and cook, stirring until thick. Stir a little of hot mixture into egg. Return egg to remaining hot mixture. Bring just to boiling, stirring constantly. Cool and then chill.

Beat well and fold in whipped cream and vanilla. Pour chilled filling into baked pie shell. Pour cooled glaze over filling. Keep pie refrigerated.

GLAZE

- 1/2 cup water
- 1 pkg. thawed strawberries
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 2 tsp. cornstarch

Combine water and berries.

Cook two minutes. Combine sugar and cornstarch. Add gradually to strawberries. Cook, stirring constantly, until thick and clear. Chill and pour over cream filling.

LL Tryouts Are Slated

Tryouts for Little League baseball season will be held April 16-17 at 4 p.m. both days in Little League Park, according to Bill Davis, league president.

Drafting for the major-league teams will be at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday evening. All boys, age 8-12, are invited to tryout for the teams.

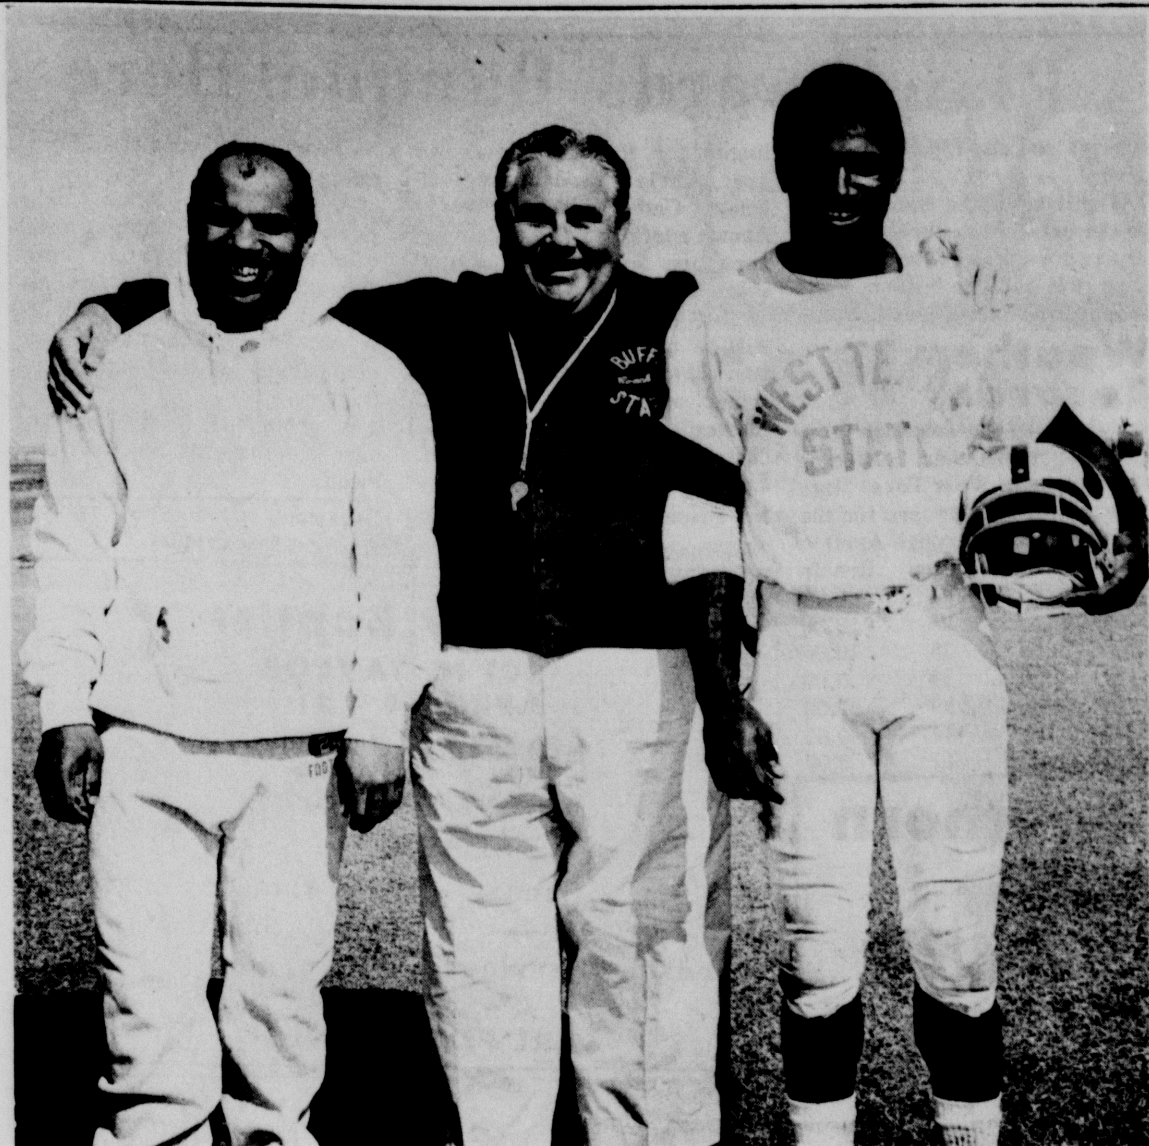

Five teams are included in the major and minor leagues. Additional teams will be set up for nine-year-olds and eight-year-olds, according to Davis.

League officers serving with Davis are William A. Cooper, vice president; Lee Roy Moreland, secretary-treasurer; Eddie Holcomb, player agent; Donald Day, umpire and chief; Joe Hooper, equipment; and Mrs. Gary Garner, Mother's Auxiliary.

HOMEMAKER OF THE WEEK, Mrs. Willis Harrison, serves Strawberry Glaze Pie to daughter, Julie Ann, 4, as son, Wade, 16 months, watches from the background. Another son, Monte Ray, 7, was in school at the time of the picture. Mrs. Harrison shares three favorite recipes with our readers this week.

West Texas State University Football Coach Joe Kerbel is shown here flanked by the two greatest backs he ever coached. They are Pistol Pete Pedro, left, and Eugene "Mercury" Morris. Pedro who burned up the turf in the early 1960s for the Buffaloes was here for the alumni game last Friday night. Morris played for the varsity and turned in an outstanding performance. Pedro is now an instructor at a neighborhood gymnasium in his hometown of Lynn, Mass. He is the father of three children, Mimi, 3 years old; Kristin, 2; and Junior, 7 months. In the alumni game, the varsity humiliated the exes.

ing few, if any, windows are needed. "The actual structure costs less money," he said. "This offsets the additional cost of mechanical equipment. The maintenance of such a building costs about 50 percent less so that over a 10-year period you about break even on expense."

Dr. Golden said that in his estimation cost of remodeling the old building would be too expensive for the additional years of service which could be expected from it.

Plans have called for retaining the north wing of the present facility and tying in to any new structure which might be constructed.

Main section of the present junior high school facility was constructed in 1923. The south building was erected four years later.

Among other things, Dr. Golden said the acoustics throughout the main portion of the building are very poor. "Teachers trying to teach in a room below another class room find it difficult at times because of the noise," he pointed out in his report.

"The windows are steel framed and are anything but dust proof, since many of the sash that open are warped," the report continued.

Dr. Golden said no class room in the building meets the square footage requirements of a good class room.

"The building is what one would call 'worn out' from constant usage and deterioration over a long period of time," he declared.

He said some parts of the building even constitute a fire hazard. He found poor lighting and poor heating. He said some rest rooms are of sufficient size but fixtures in them are "worn out."

"The condition these buildings are in makes it impossible to keep them sanitary," the report stated.

School Supt. Jerry Jacobs said action must come quickly if a bond issue is to be voted upon during the current school term. Golden said at least 12 months would be required to complete a new building.

Jacobs pointed out that the interest rate is as much as 1 percent higher than it was at this time in 1967.

It was estimated last spring that a tax raise of 17 cents per $100 valuation would be necessary if a new building is constructed. School officials see an even greater increase necessary at the present time.

Girls March

ANGEL CORPS drill team at West Texas State University performed around Canyon's "square" area Tuesday afternoon. Team members were seeking funds to sponsor a trip for a Hemis-

Dr. Trueblood, who has previously delivered the Willson series at WTSU, holds the A.B. from William Penn College, the S.T.B. from Harvard University, and the Ph.D. from Johns Hopkins University. He holds honorary degrees from the University of Vermont, Washington and Lee University, and Miami University.

He has held professorships at Harvard, Stanford, and Guilford. He has just retired from Earlham College where he was a professor of philosophy. Dr. Trueblood holds the Christian Service Award, and was Churchman of the Year in 1960. He is a fellow of Woodbrooke in England.

Dr. Trueblood was chief of religious information for the U.S. Information Agency, and was adviser to "Voice of America" in 1954-55.

will be issued at the lake after the boat is approved as meeting federal and state requirements.

Hansen said boats must have the proper rear view mirrors, fire extinguishers, lights when required by length and life preservers.

"This will give the boating public an opportunity to learn the rules and regulations of the water," the manager said. "We can explain to the boaters which life preservers are approved and which are not."

The move to require the stickers is an overall drive to reduce the number of accidents and drownings at the lake. Each sticker can be used for the boating season, he said.

With the changes requiring charges for admission to the lake, only two points at the refuge will be available as entrance points. Hansen said an entrance point on the east and west shores would be opened this summer.

This was made necessary, he explained, due to the admission charge and preserving facilities at the lake which have been either stolen or vandalized in past weeks.

The lake area, he said, would be closed after 11 p.m. and reopened at 6 a.m.

"People can come in before 11 p.m. to camp overnight," he said, "but once they leave they can't come back until 6 a.m."

An educational program that will be conducted on Saturday evenings will give lake personnel an opportunity to show color slides of wildlife and conservation projects, and to answer any questions and explain the rules and regulations at the refuge.

"We hope to promote a closer relationship between the staff and the visiting public—I hope it will be of mutual benefit," Hansen stated.

About 100 new picnic units, two new boat ramps, two modern restrooms with cold and hot water on each side of the lake, drinking water and electricity on both sides of the lake and two lighted boat launching sites.

through the ages.

"Suffering has been a prelude to progress," he went on. "So often blood is required for the benefit of others." He said the crucifixion must have appeared at first to have been a victory for status quo.

"Leaders of non-violence will be gravely tested in the next few weeks," Dr. Fisher said. But he added that non-violence will have victory.

Rev. Pederson led a prayer and the entire group joined in singing "America."

Among the marchers were 12 Negroes, most of them students at West Texas State. They wore black arm bands.

Also marching was Gillespie C. Wilson, Amarillo, vice president of the Amarillo Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people.

"I am proud of the turnout in this predominantly white community," said Wilson. Wilson said that, though he is no prophet, he does not expect any racial violence in this immediate area.

Principal organizers of the procession were Dick Jackson, Tom Heydman and Walter Shelly. Although they are members of the West Texas State University faculty, they emphasized that their actions in connection with procession in no way represented the university.

The three met Saturday morning with Mayor Paul Lindsey and asked for a parade permit. Mayor Lindsey informed them that he was not legally empowered to issue such a permit but told them that city ordinances require pedestrians to keep to the sidewalk where sidewalks are available. Where no sidewalks are available, the law requires pedestrians to walk on the left side of the street facing traffic.

Rev. Stribling dismissed the threatening telephone call to him as the action of a "crank." He said the call came during Sunday School Sunday morning and that the caller refused to identify himself.

He quoted the caller as saying the Presbyterian Church would be bombed if Rev. Stribling participated in the march.

Hutton presented a document to the court declaring that he had searched commissioners court minutes for 1964 and had found no evidence of court approval of a plat of Holiday South No. 1 development in north Randall County.

The court approved a fee of $75 each for three special commissioners who served on three condemnation cases in which Santa Fe Pipeline Company sought to place pipeline across private property. The commissioners each received $25 in each of the three cases.

County Judge Carroll Brown said five more such cases are to be heard April 23. Special commissioners are John Plank, Albert Byars and Marvin Standifer.

Hansen, who was transferred here from the Alamosa National Wildlife Refuge, started his career with the Department of the Interior in the wildlife agency in 1961, after receiving his Bachelor of Science degree in wildlife management from Utah State University.

He has served on the Bear River Migratory Bird Refuge in Utah, the National Elk Refuge in Wyoming, and the Hagerman and Arkansas National Wildlife Refuges in Texas. The 32-year-old native of Utah was selected as one of six trainees permitted to attend the Management Training Program sponsored by the Department of the Interior in 1964. ### Winners

CANYON JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL teachers, Mrs. Susan Watkins and Bob Naylor were declared winners of the "pretty baby contest" sponsored by the CJHS chapter of the Future Homemakers of America as part of FHA Week.

Cubs Clean City's Park

About 40 boys from Cub Scout Pack 97 spent three hours last Saturday picking up trash from two vacant lots across US Highway 87 near Rex Reeves Elementary School.

The beautification project, staged between 10th and 12th Avenues here was in observance of "Keep America Beautiful", theme for Cub Scout activities for the month of April throughout the US.

The cubmaster, Norman (Smokey) Stover, and the den mothers pointed out that the project teaches the boys more responsibility toward being community minded and makes them more conscious of the problem of litter.

Three local supermarkets donated paper bags for collection of the trash and a nearby service station provided clean-up facilities for the boys.

Another project in which Pack 97 is involved is the preparation of posters to be distributed to various Canyon business establishments in Canyon for display. The local Chamber of Commerce will assist in placing the posters in the stores.

Lanes Have Infant Son

The birth of a son, Marty Judd, is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Joel Lane of Canyon.

Born at Neblett Memorial Hospital March 31, the infant weighed 8 pounds 2 ounces at birth.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lane of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Leverett of Duke, Oklahoma.

CLEAN UP DAY was part of the work of the Cub Scout Pack 97 near Rex Reeves Elementary School Saturday. Among those picking up trash on the vacant lots were, left, Dale Foster, Greg Hatch, Craig Mercer and Matt Griffin.

50-Year Award

THOMAS B. McCARTER, a resident of Canyon since 1918, was presented with a certificate and lapel pin this week in honor of his 50 year's service as a Master Mason. McCarter is a member of Austin Masonic Lodge No. 12. The award was presented by Donald J. Lindsey, District Deputy of the Grand Lodge of Texas, from Amarillo and came from the Grand Lodge of Texas in Waco.

Christianity-Evolution Topic Of Geologist, Dr. Burton

A geologist who is a churchman said that if a law were man said that if a law were passed tomorrow forcing him to choose between evolution and the biblical story of creation he would "cling to Christianity."

Dr. Robert Burton, professor of geology and head of that department at West Texas State University, addressed the newly formed Anthropological Society on the campus Monday night. Burton, also an elder in the Presbyterian Church, talked on "Christianity and Evolution."

The geologist warned against attempts to convert adherents of one or the other story of the creation, but he thought that some individuals who had some knowledge of both accounts "might manage some kind of a marriage between the two ideas."

God's six days of labor and man's existence since 400 B.C. are not necessarily reckoned in man's measurement of time, Burton pointed out. Burton questioned the literal interpretation of man's creation in the image of God.

For one thing, he said, "the crudest creature on earth is man," and that wasn't the speaker's conception of God. Also, "man is the stupidest creature God ever made... man will destroy just for the sake of destruction... man is one of the dirtiest creatures... he is not the prettiest thing on earth... but, seen through a frog's eyes, for instance, he is a horrible apparition... but man puts himself upon a pedestal."

Burton described man as "just a piece of all creation just for an instant," but "somewhere in man there is something that responds to God." The earth, which geologists say has existed for billions of years, "is almost a living, breathing organism of its own."

"And," added Burton, "

BEWARE OF LSD.

IT IS DANGEROUS.

LSD, or lysergic acid diethylamide, was discovered nearly thirty years ago and only recently became the subject of intense research. It has possibilities for great good if we can ever learn how to control it.

It has been said LSD is presently the most dangerous drug we have had in a long time. Its results are erratic, unpredictable and highly potent. Evidence indicates it damages the user's chromosomes, leading to mental retardation and birth defects. We will not, under present conditions, stock or sell LSD to anyone.
